

Writing to inform:

- To write questions
- To use noun phrases to describe what they can see
- To write simple instructions.
- To write a nonchronological report: Astronauts

phonics

reading

writing

drawing club

Handwriting practice grid with letters a-z on lined paper. The letters are arranged in five rows: a-e, f-k, l-p, q-u, v-z. A small 'Letter-join' logo is in the bottom right corner.

adjectives

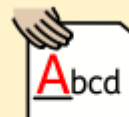

nouns

verbs

sentence

capital letters

full stop

question

Writing to entertain:

- To retell a familiar story
- To write and sequence a simple story using adverbs
- To use familiar stories to create a simple story narrative.
- To publish story as a book.

